Sally's Advice To Beauty Seekers

"I've tried most everything, but can't lose them. You suggest?" See answer to the treatment suggested. I've tried to tell to any race of either cutaneous blemish. "Is there anything better to remove wrinkles?" The treatment suggested is a massage, using a special cream, a condition, tending to soften and remove the lines. I advise bathing the face in lukewarm water, and the use of powdered talcum in the hair. This is remarkable.
